2008

Partner since 2008

From our beginnings in 1952, our firm's founders encouraged all employees to get involved in charities and non-profits that support the communities in which we all live and work. This enduring vision has become a cornerstone of Aprio's culture. Today, our team members serve in leadership roles of non-profit boards or as volunteers, investing their time and sharing their experience with hundreds of organizations across the nation.
