In 2002, our founders, Scott Farquhar and Mike Cannon-Brookes, set conventional wisdom on its ear by launching a successful enterprise software company with no sales force. From Australia. Our first product, Jira, proved that if you make a great piece of software, price it right, and make it available for anyone to download, teams will come. And they'll build great things with it. And they'll tell two friends, and so on, and so on.
